

in-business

The mission of 'in-business South Australia' magazine is to play a significant part in the development of our State's economic strength by providing a medium for business communication that –

- fosters effective networking
- delivers information to support good decision-making
- is shared and valued by all South Australian business people.

in-business... South Australia's best business networking package!

Established in 2001 in-business magazine is now a reading priority for thousands of South Australian business people. Our reputation has been built on editorial integrity, high quality presentation, an innovative and relevant mix of content (including the Top 100 SA Company Index and Fast Movers SA) and a South Australian focus that drives networking and business transactions.

Each edition of in-business provides readers with a comprehensive round-up of what's happening around the State plus management tools that help South Australian businesses excel. Other features in each edition include in-businesswoman, a business event calendar and a business services directory, branded as the Gold Pages. Importantly, in-business fills the gap for business news that is parochial, independent and adds value.

Tap into the eager audience that in-business brings together, through local alliances with the Australian Institute of Company Directors (South Australia) and the Water Industry Alliance whose members are all included on our subscriber base. With a print run of 6,000 copies, a subscriber base approaching 4,000 and an estimated readership of 12,000 in-business is making a big impact in South Australia. This is supported by our own branding activities including TV advertising. Also available in leading newsagents in South Australia.
